

One copy for one year... Terms... Advertising Rates...

ANDERSON C. H. S. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1871.

Admitted to the Bar. At the March Term of the Court at Wall-halla last week...

Masonic Statistics. The proceedings of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina show that the strength of the Masonic Fraternity in this State, in November last...

Marshall & Burgo. We direct attention to the card of these gentlemen, which has appeared in our columns for the last several weeks...

Henry Bischoff & Co. This liberal and enterprising firm seeks to extend their business in this region of country...

Tile Manufactory. It is perhaps known to many of our readers that our progressive and enterprising fellow-citizen, Mr. E. F. Crayton...

A Kiln of these tiles has already been burned, and are pronounced by Mr. Dickson, an intelligent Englishman...

We expect great results from this new enterprise—not immediate, but gradual...

A COUNTY AUDITOR IN TROUBLE.—The transactions of one Dr. John Lunney, of Darlington, in the Land Commission...

THE TRIBUNE SPEAKETH.—Even that prejudice-blinded paper, the New York Tribune, is disgusted with the doings of the South Carolina Legislature...

—The Columbian Daily Union says: Several of the State officers have, it is reported, within the last few days been the recipients of those mysterious bits of paper headed with the usual number of drawings of crooked-legged chicken bones...

—The poles for the new Telegraph line have been set as far as Newberry Court House.

Leading Citizens in Conference with Gov. Scott on the Condition of Public Affairs.

An invitation was extended to a number of prominent citizens of the State to meet in conference with Gov. Scott, and bring about a free interchange of opinions...

The conference was free and pleasant, and the present condition of affairs was freely discussed.

The principal cause of the trouble, as urged by nearly all these gentlemen, was the organization and arming of one class or race of citizens against the other.

Another fruitful source of complaint, and one which we have regarded as lying at the very root of the whole matter, was the profligate and irresponsible manner in which the Legislature performed its work during the last session.

It will be recollected that we repeatedly warned the Legislature that the people were watching its operations, and that dissatisfied constituents would hold derelict members to account for their stewardship.

Many of the gentlemen admitted that the percentage of taxation was not exorbitant, but the assessments were outrageously disproportionate and unjust.

That there are certain abuses in the Legislature which must be corrected, there is no one foolish enough to deny...

A COUNTY AUDITOR IN TROUBLE.—The transactions of one Dr. John Lunney, of Darlington, in the Land Commission...

THE TRIBUNE SPEAKETH.—Even that prejudice-blinded paper, the New York Tribune, is disgusted with the doings of the South Carolina Legislature...

Dr. J. W. Gurley has returned from his recent professional tour, and may be found at his office during business hours...

Taxes.

By provisions of the "Act to further amend an Act, entitled an Act providing for the assessment and taxation of property," passed at the last session of the Legislature...

The people of South Carolina are to be called on this year to pay two years' taxes, not to speak of an extra tax of $448,000 gold for special indebtedness.

As the Charleston Courier remarks: "Those who occupy the State government might as well at once pass an act confiscating the property of every citizen and appropriating the proceeds to their own enrichment and self-aggrandizement."

OVER A MILLION.—The cotton receipts of this port are already over a million of bales, and the cry is still they come.

How A REPUTATION TELLS.—The Hon. Wm. Mack, Speaker of the Indiana House of Representatives, tells the following:

THE TOMB OF LEE.—Beneath the Chapel, covered with a plain marble slab, lie the remains of Lee. Simple flowers are laid by fair hands...

TESTIMONIAL TO JUDGE ORR.—At the close of the three weeks' term of our Court on Tuesday last, Mr. Burt in behalf of the Abbeville Bar, expressed in fitting terms their high appreciation of the ability, courtesy and promptness with his Honor Judge Orr dispatched the business of the term...

THE HOPE OF THE COUNTRY.—Down Platt, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, says: "It is hard to make the people from the interior believe it, but any man can verify the fact by coming to Washington..."

New Hampshire Election.

The latest returns from New Hampshire vary the details of Tuesday's election without affecting the substantial result.

First. It is conceded that we have made a clean sweep of the Congressmen, all three of whom were Republicans before, and are all Democrats now.

Secondly. The Legislature is more favorable than the first news permitted us to expect. According to Wednesday returns, the Democrats had a majority of one in the Senate...

Thirdly. It is but a slight drawback to these substantial victories, that it is not certain that the Democrats have elected the Governor.

A LARGE PIECE OF IRON REMOVED FROM A MAN'S HEAD.—The Wilmington (Del.) Commercial gives the subjoined particulars of an explosion in a laboratory in that city...

Surgeons were called and all that their skill could do was done. He lay all Saturday night, Sunday, and up to noon Monday...

DR. J. B. PALMER.—A New York letter says: "A new movement is now spoken of here among the Presbyterians, which may call to New York a shining light of their church."

A Washington letter of Thursday says: The disintegration and demoralization which have been going on in the Republican party in Congress since the 4th of March...

ITEMS—EDITORIAL AND OTHERWISE.

Reason is the flower of the spirit, and its fragrance is liberty and knowledge. —A. C. Ives, Esq., of Augusta, Ga., died of small-pox, in that city, on Tuesday.

Mr. C. L. Anderson has been appointed by the Governor Assistant Adjutant and Inspector General of the State of South Carolina.

Theodore Monroe, a colored man, from Charleston, S. C., originally, is said to have acquired an extended reputation as a physician at Cairo, Egypt.

Blodgett and Goldwaite, of Georgia, have been seated in the United States Senate, on prima facie evidence, the merits of their cases to be considered in the future.

King Victor Emanuel is said to be haunted by the disembodied spirits of the Bourbons of France. King Ulysses Grant is also haunted by the disembodied spirits of the Bourbons of Kentucky.

The German authorities have returned to the French 12,000 rifles taken by them in excess of the number which were to be delivered to them by the terms of the capitulation of Paris.

South Carolina is reported as one of the three States which have occasioned so much delay in sending the manuscript of the United States census report to the printer...

The New York Leader, the organ of the Tammany Democracy, indulges in an outburst of rhetoric on the American flag, which it says, "floats a limp and faded rag, over the heads of the money changers who have made our fathers home a den of thieves."

Ben. Butler, on Tuesday, expressed a desire to "protect the people of the South from murder." The Mumford family, of New Orleans, would have protected their father from murder if they could have protected him from Butler.

Near Stanton, Va., on the 7th inst., about 25 negroes attempted to mob another named Norrill. Two of the mob seized Norrill, when the latter drew his knife and commenced to cut vigorously...

The Montgomery Mail says that since the law was passed in Alabama giving every woman $5,000 whose husband had been killed by the Ku Klux, lots of female carpet-baggers are coaxing their husbands to go out in the woods...

The board of registers of Clarendon, Iowa, decided that women were entitled to vote in that city, and the names of all ladies of proper age were placed on the rolls.

The French propose to reorganize their army, and will adopt the German system. The law framed by the government for this purpose compels all Frenchmen to serve compulsory for three years in the regulars...

A French journal attributes the mishaps and downfall of France to the vice of drunkenness. "Let us suppress drunkenness," says a writer in that paper...

THE MARKETS. ANDERSON, March 22, 1871. Cotton.—To-day, middlings command 12 1/2 to 13 1/2.

HYMENAL. MARRIED, on the 20th of February, 1871, by Rev. W. F. Martin, at the residence of Edith Smith, Mr. JOHN DAVIS and Widow TRANA GRIFFIN, all of Anderson county.

THE PAIN KILLER. Is by universal consent allowed to have won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in the history of medical preparations.

The ingredients of the PAIN KILLER, being purely Vegetable, render it a perfectly safe and efficacious remedy taken internally, as well as for external application.

Cheering Facts for the Billions. Every day demonstrates more clearly that liver complaint, in all its distressing forms, can be controlled and cured without difficulty or inconvenience.

Evidence Accumulates. That no Baking Powder can stand the test of a careful chemical analysis like DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER.

Administrator's Sale. I will sell at Anderson C. H., on Saturday in April next, the Houses in Aotou belonging to the Estate of J. B. Burgess, deceased.

Notice This and Read it Carefully. HAVING advertised for Guardians, Trustees, Executors and Administrators to come in by the first of April next and make their returns...

H. H. SCUDDAY, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. ANDERSON C. H., S. C.

WAVERLY HOUSE, Anderson, S. C. JOHN A. MAYES, Proprietor.

THE WAVERLY HOUSE has been repaired and fitted up, and has now a magnificent appearance. Mr. Mayes is lately of Abbeville, and is well known as a good Hotel keeper.

THE WAVERLY HOUSE has been repaired and fitted up, and has now a magnificent appearance. Mr. Mayes is lately of Abbeville, and is well known as a good Hotel keeper.